Sebastian is Given a “Jump Start”

Sebastian has been given a “Jump Start” thanks to Aus Painting and Maintenance. Sebastian, a qualified diesel mechanic was no longer able to continue in his line of work due to a severe back injury and pending knee reconstruction. After 30 years in the industry this was a devastating blow! Sebastian said, “I was really broken. Depression set in and it was hard to get motivated, even the simple things such as mowing the lawn became a struggle.” Given his extensive experience and knowledge Aus Painting and Maintenance quickly snapped him up, offering part-time employment as a Trades Assistant. The future is now looking bright! With a very supportive employer Sebastian works Monday – Friday for 3 to 4 hours a day and his employer allows him all the breaks he needs so that it doesn’t aggravate his injuries. His employer breaks tasks down for him that are achievable with his condition and to ensure that it doesn’t put unwarranted stress on Sebastian. Sebastian is due to get his first pay on Wednesday and he has plans to take his girlfriend out to a surprise dinner for the first time in a very long time.
